

- 90 1. There was no wind so the crew had to go out in jolly boats and they had been 18 days into the voyage.
- 90 2. Ewing had a sweetheart and a mermaid that were probably one.
- 92 3. Charlotte had to go the forecastle to get another needle from Ewing's chest in the men's quarters.
- 91-92 4. The forecastle was the one place that the sailors called their own.
- 92 5. Charlotte looked for Zach to get the needle, but she didn't find him so she had to go there herself.
- 90 6. She heard voices saying that Jaggery was pushing hard and there's 7 that put down their mark.
- 92 7. "We kept those other passengers off except for Charlotte."
- 93 8. Charlotte was invited into the forecastle and she saw the arms and legs of 3 men.
- 94 9. In the trunk Charlotte found a pistol. She was leaving and stumbled and a paper fluttered off a trunk. It was a round robin.
- 95 10. Charlotte realized the crew was planning a mutiny, rebellion.
- 98 11. She was also puzzled by the observation that 4 of men were on watch and 3 men in the fore-castle hammocks. Then she remembered the first day and decided there was a stowaway on board the ship.
- 98 12. Charlotte remembered that Barlow said not to go in the hold and then she had seen the grimmings carriage.
- 98 13. She decided that she owed the captain her allegiance by custom by habit by law.
- 99 14. Morgan saw me on deck and lifted his hand and extended a skelton like forefinger and drew it across his own neck.
- 100 15. Then Foley saw me and gave a gaze of blatant scrutiny.
- 101 16. Charlotte confessed everything she saw to the captain with Hollybrass present.
- 103 17. By the time she was done telling, the captain was seething and said, "Why the devil didn't you tell me this before?"
- 104 18. Charlotte's excuse was that she didn't trust her senses.
- 104 19. The captain ordered Hollybrass to call all hands. He intended to
- 104 20. crush the mutiny before it starts.
